KWC INTRODUCES AN INNOVATIVE KITCHEN WORKCENTER The KWC WATERSTATION

NORCROSS, Ga. (May 2007) — Providing the ultimate food preparation experience with its revolutionary design, the KWC WATERSTATION is the multifunctional, integrated work center for today's performance kitchen.

The KWC WATERSTATION is center stage in the kitchen featuring ergonomically-designed, freely rotating individual functions and accessories concentrated around a centralized point of water delivery. Customizable to the individual home chef's needs, the KWC WATERSTATION enhances and optimizes the entire food preparation process.

Available as a freestanding unit that can act as an island, a built-in corner unit, or as a built-in counter unit, the KWC WATERSTATION can be integrated into any kitchen design. It is also offered in four finished heights, and includes two sinks and an additional bowl, offering the ability to clean, sort or prep simultaneously. The revolving cage in the base cupboard houses a rotating carousel with a removable waste or storage system. A variety of bowls, colanders, cutting boards and accessories are included to complete each individual KWC WATERSTATION design.

For more information about the KWC WATERSTATION or other KWC AMERICA products, call 678.334.2121 or visit www.kwcamerica.com.
